LACKAWANNA, THE LAUNDRY

108 Penn Avenue. A. B. WARMAN

WOULDN'T LET HIM VOTE.

William McLaughlin Charged with Assaulting Benjamin Lupini.

A warrant was sworn out before Alderman Howe Wednesday by Benjamin Lupini, of Genet street, charging William McLaughlin, of Stone avenue, with assault and battery and refusing to let him vote. McLaughlin it seems is a judge of election in the Fourth district of the Twentieth ward.
Lupini on election day went to the polling booth to cast his vote, but Mc-Laughlin for reason unknown, resented the intrusion, and to borrow from the vocabulary of Professor James Jeffries, he "handed him a stiff one in the jaw." He followed this up by hurling Lupini from his domain and absolutely refusing to let him vote.

The warrant was served yesterday and McLaughlin waived a hearing before Alderman Rudy, of the South Side, being put under $300 bail for his appearance at court.

What Would You Give

To be cured of catarrh? If you or your friends have this disease, you know how disagreeable it is. Its symptoms are inflamed eyes, throbbing temples, ringing noises in the ears, headaches, capricious appetite, and constant discharge of mucus. Fortunately its cure is not a question of what you will give, but what you will take. If you will take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great constitutional remedy, which thoroughly purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, you may expect to be completely and permanently cured. The good blood which Hood's Sarsaparilla makes, reaching the delicate passages of the mucous membrane, soothes and rebuilds the tissues and ultimately cures all symptoms of catarrh.

James Scanlon Arrested in Wilkes-Barre by Marshal Lowry.

Deputy United States Marshal Clark Lowry arrested James Scanlon, in Wilkes-Barre on Thursday on a charge of passing counterfeit coins and the latter is now incarcerated in the county jail of Luzerne county awaiting trial on the charge.

Complaints had lately been received by the marshal to the effect that counterfeit silver dollars were being passed on several merchants in Wilkes-Barre.
He went to the latter city on Thursday and learned that Scanlon was suspected of being the guilty party. He learned his whereabouts and arrested him on the spot.

Scanlon made quite a resistance but was finally handcuffed and brought before United States Commissioner Hahn who held him in $1,000 bail for his appearance at the next term of United States court. Several of the bogus dollars were found in his possession.

INSUBORDINATION CHARGED.

Teachers in No. 26 School at Odds with Principal.

The teachers' committee of the board of control met last evening in Superintendent Howell's office and conducted a secret investigation of charges of insubordination brought against several teachers of No. 26 school in the First ward.

It is claimed that several teachers in this school have openly defied the principal, Mrs. M. M. Jones, and the matter has caused a deal of gossip in North Scranton for some time past. Mrs.
Jones and one of the teachers, Miss Teresa M. Blewitt, were examined by the committee, which will make a report on the matter at next Monday evening's meeting of the board.

The committee was in session till 11:30 on this matter, and was unable to take up the list of night school teachers proposed by the various directors.
About twenty-five night schools will be opened on Monday evening, and the teachers selected by the directors will begin work, pending action by the board on their appointments.

FOOT BALL GAMES TODAY.

Wilkes-Barre High School and the School of Lackawanna to Meet.

This afternoon at Athletic park the renewed School of the Lackawanna foot ball team will meet the Wilkes-Barre High school team on the gridiron. A hard game is expected. Lackawanna is minus the services of Brown, her fast back, but will have Biles in his place. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

This morning the second team of the High school will meet the eleven of the Scranton Business college at Athletic park. The High school boys are flushed with their recent victory over Dunmore and intend to put up a fast game.

NOT YET OPERATED UPON.

Little Andrew Popatha Still at the Lackawanna Hospital.

Little Andrew Lopatha, the two and a half year old child of Mike Lopatha, of Jernyn, who swallowed a shav-elin about six weeks ago and was taken to the Lackawanna hospital three days ago, as told of in yesterday's Tribune, is quite a source of mental anxiety to the physicians of the hospital.
Whether or not a successful operation can be performed is the serious question. In the meanwhile the little chap remains in his cot and presents an appearance the very opposite from what any one would expect. He is a bright, smart looking little fellow and sat contentedly munching an apple and playing with a string of blocks when a Tribune man was at the hospital yesterday.

NEW ROUTE
TO TIDEWATER

Bed of the Abandoned D. & H. Canal Is to Be Used.

MEN WHO ARE INTERESTED

They Are the Principal Stockholders of the Pennsylvania Coal Company.
Road Will Be Built from Hawley to Kingston, N. Y.—From Hawley to This City the Tracks of the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad Company Will Be Used—Capital Stock of the Company, $2,500,000.

Scranton will have another outlet to tidewater in the Delaware Valley & Kingston Railroad company, which has been organized by some of the principal stockholders of the Pennsylvania Coal company and the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad company or their representatives and by persons owning other anthracite coal properties and by parties in Ulster county, N. Y., representing the Cornell Steamboat company and the large cement interests of Rosendale.

It is expected to build a line of railway from Hawley, Pa., connecting with the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at that point and extending to Kingston, N. Y., on the Hudson river, following all of the way the route of the old Delaware and Hudson canal, thereby supplying a means of bringing large quantities of anthracite coal to tidewater at less than the high freight rate now charged by the railways on this commodity.

This line will also provide suitable and modern transportation facilities for the country adjacent to the old canal, and for the numerous small villages along its route, which have suffered severely for lack of means of getting their products to market since the abandonment of the canal by the Delaware and Hudson company about a year ago.

The directors of the new company are: Samuel D. Cockendall, of Kingston, N. Y., president of the Cornell Steamboat company and the Ulster and Delaware Railroad company, and also representing the great cement interests of Rosendale; Edward L. Fuller, of Scranton, representing the independent coal operators of this region; Frederick P. Olcott, president of the Central Trust company; Samuel Thorne, president of the Pennsylvania Coal company; George G. Williams, president of the Chemical bank; William V. S. Thorne, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Coal company; James N.
Jarvis, head of the firm of Arbuckle Bros., and John W. Sterling, all of New York city, and Walter Ferguson, of Stamford, Conn.

The officers of the company are: W.
V. S. Thorne, president; George H.
Church, secretary and treasurer, and Charles E. Webster, chief engineer.
The capital stock of the company is fixed at $2,500,000, on which $250,000 has already been paid in cash.

Mrs. Bradish, of Detroit, Wrote Mrs. Pinkham and Tells the Result.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 23,315]

"About two years ago I began to run down and soon became almost a wreck.
I lost my appetite and began to lose flesh; my blood was impoverished and I had to leave my store."

"The doctors gave me a little tonic, but it steadily grew worse and consulted another doctor. He helped me in some ways, but my headaches continued, and I began to have night sweats and my rest was so disturbed that I would have hysteria and would cry and worry over business matters and my poor health."

"Finally, husband took me South, but with no benefit. This was a year ago; no one can ever know what a winter of misery I spent."

"I was so weak and troubled with palpitation of heart and whites. Having read by happy chance of your medicine, I bought it and wrote for your advice, and before having finished the first bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the hysterics nearly stopped and I slept soundly."

"I used seven or eight bottles with such benefit that I am as healthy as I can ever remember of being. I shall never cease to sound your praises."— disposal of every ailing woman who

WORMSER WAS ARRESTED

Clothier Charged with Violation of New Ordinance—He Has Taken an Appeal to Court.

Morris Wormser, who keeps a clothing store at 415 Lackawanna avenue, was arrested yesterday by Chief of Police Robling for selling without a special license. The arrest was made under the provisions of an ordinance just passed by councils which provides that all transient merchants pay a license tax of $100 for the privilege of selling.

Wormser was taken before Alderman Miller, before whom the warrant was issued, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100. He refused to do so and he was accordingly committed to the county jail, where he remained just one hour and a half.

He was then brought before Judge Edwards and his attorney, Joseph O'Brien, asked for an appeal to the court of quarter sessions, claiming that the fine imposed was not authorized by law and that the act of assembly, in which the ordinance is based, is unconstitutional. He also asserted that Wormser is a permanent merchant, having been in business here nearly a year. Court allowed the appeal and Wormser was held in $300 bail for his appearance in court. Jacob Falk, of Wilkes-Barre, qualified as his bondsman.

Wormser was arrested on a similar charge in this city last spring, his arrest being based on a similar ordinance. He was released, however, on Judge Gunster declaring that ordinance unconstitutional. The new ordinance was drawn up with an eye to remedying the defects in the old one and the coming decision of court regarding it will, no doubt, be watched with much interest.

THEIR ANNUAL INSPECTION.

Ezra Griffin Post, G. A. R., Put Through the Manual Last Night.

The members of Ezra Griffin post, No. 129, G. A. R., held their annual business meeting and inspection last evening. Over 200 of the old veterans were present and stood erect and firm while Comrade R. H. Holgate, of Waverly post, walked down the line and inspected them.

At the conclusion of the inspection a social session was held in the main hall of the post rooms on Lackawanna avenue and brief addresses were made by Colonel E. H. Ripple, Colonel H. H.
Cochran and others.

There will be a series of five lectures given this fall in the high school auditorium under the auspices of the post, commencing Nov. 15. The lectures will be delivered by Rev. Dr.
Scott, of Elmhurst, and will be on "Ancient Rome." They will be illustrated with stereopticon views.
